PUMPED UP SPORT
MODULAR INFLATABLE FOOTBALL RANGE

SHOWCASE YOUR CLUB TO THE WORLD

WHILE YOUR FANS ENGAGE WITH YOUR BRAND

For over 20 years we have been at the forefront of international promotional inflatables. We produce and deliver high-end products of all shapes and sizes to clients worldwide.

Our hugely popular modular inflatable football range is now available for all regions to order.

WHY CHOOSE US?

Get unbelievable value for money

Using only the highest-quality materials and advanced construction technology means your inflatables will last. And last... and last. This ensures great return on investment for your promotional spend.

Benefit from our design experience

Our team of world-class graphic designers work with each inflatable unit to most effectively display your club's colours. We will bring your brand to life!

Simple and safe for all to operate

Your promotional inflatables can be operated by the most inexperienced staff. They are easy to set-up, pack away, transport and store. We manufacture and test materials, construction and equipment in accordance to the most stringent Australian and international safety standards.

You are dealing with the world's best

Our internationally award-winning products are designed by leading engineering experts. Our reputation precedes us across the globe. We set the standard in customer service excellence. Pumped Up Sport can be relied on to deliver on time, on budget and to your specific needs.
